6 UNMISSABLE UK FESTIVALS THIS SUMMER

CREAMFIELDS

Held over the bank holiday weekend, this is the largest and most famous electronic music festival in the UK. Held at a different site every year, it has become a must-see for electronic music fans, drawing people from all over the world to come back bigger and better than ever before in 2012. This year's festival will take place at Cheshire Oaks, Cheshire. This year's line-up includes deadmau5, Fatboy Slim, The Chainsmokers and Pendulum.

FRINGE

This year's Edinburgh Fringe is celebrating its 70th anniversary and is one of the biggest arts festival in the world, held from mid-August to early September. It's a mix of Scottish capital, and pride itself on being the most international and diverse festival in the world. It's a physical cabaret, circus and even cabaret, comedy, theatre, dance, film, music, art and more. Imagine wading through mud, sleeping in a tent and not being able to shower for days - that's what makes things sound particularly enjoyable, hasn't it? It's the best time to go to British festivals every year - they are a haul of the best new acts and acts from all around the world. Each UK festival is unique in its own way and here are the most unmissable festivals coming up this summer.

ISLE OF WIGHT

The Isle of Wight Festival started as a counter-cultural event in the late 1960s and, in 1971, Parliament added a section to the festival's site to allow the festival to continue. Since then, it has become one of the most popular festivals in the UK, with a licence from the council. However, in 2002, the festival was moved to a new site in the country. This year's line-up includes acts such as David Guetta, Rixton, Dizzee Rascal, The Chainsmokers and Pendulum.

LINTITUDE

Thought to be more similar to continental European festivals, this year's Lintitude festival will include Festival encompasses music, theatre, comedy, dance, film, art, food, drink and more. It's a great place to explore and discover. Held in the beautiful coastal town of Southwold, Suffolk, this year's festival has something for everyone. Headliners include Arctic Monkeys, The Killers, Gorillaz, Florence and the Machine, Kings of Leon and many more.

Glastonbury

It may be one of the world's most iconic music festivals, but Glastonbury's 2012 line-up is just about the best ever. From indie rock to electronic music, there's a wonderful place to explore and discover. Held in the heart of the English countryside, Glastonbury is one of the most famous music festivals in the UK. It's a great place to see the majority of its line-up under one roof and much closer to the action. It's a great place to go, and it's a great place to go to. Only acts confirmed so far this year. The festival will run from 24-28 July.
